«Kinotavr» is the largest national film festival. Every year in June, on the Black sea coast in Sochi, the top talents of Russian cinema come together: directors, producers, actors, script writers, directors of photography. They come to participate in the country's main cinematic event. For 22 years «Kinotavr» has uncovered new names and talented, real cinema.

The ten days of the festival are filled with a variety of events, among which people can choose according to their own interest. Thus, «Kinotavr» is:

- Competition, non-competition and special screenings of the most interesting films of the year. The tradition of the special programme «Cinema on the Square» is especially precious to the citizens and visitors of Sochi. In the evenings, on the big square in front of the Winter Theatre, some thousand people gather to watch great cinema directly under the starry sky of Sochi.
- Professional round tables, masters-classes, press conferences with cinematographers.
- The impressive opening and closing ceremonies of «Kinotavr», with the opening highlight of the so-called «Star Walk», along which the most popular filmmakers and actors make their way to the Winter Theatre.
- The cultural programme: concerts by stars, shows and entertainment.
